OFFICERS

JERRY REINSDORF

Chairman

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January of 1981, Jerry Reinsdorf has been increasingly active in the affairs of baseball. He recently started a third four-year term on Major League Baseball's prestigious Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. for seven years. He remains a member of the Ownership Committee and serves as chairman of the Equal Opportunity and Legislative Affairs committees. Reinsdorf is also a member of the Restructuring Committee and the American League Presidential Search Committee.

During Reinsdorf's 13 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club has captured American League West titles twice, in 1983 and again in 1993.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in the professional sports world in February of 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has brought three consecutive World Championships to Chicago beginning in 1991.

Reinsdorf has devoted most of his time to athletic interests since his December 1987 completion of employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company.

Reinsdorf's many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago and the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award and Northwestern University's Award of Merit. In 1993, Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor for contributing to national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of our ancestors. As chairman of the Chicago White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the newest arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association, and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University and the Illinois Institute of Technology. He has also served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Reinsdorf was born on February 25, 1936 in Brooklyn, New York. He graduated from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. prior to receiving a law degree from Northwestern University. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children: David, Susan, Michael and Jonathan and three grandchildren: Bryan, Melissa and Max.

EDDIE EINHORN

Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his fourth year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his other sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture with ABC and NBC. He is a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee and was named to the three-member Television Committee in September of 1992. In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is also television consultant to the International Skating Union, governing body of all world ice skating, the U.S. Figure Skating Association and the U.S. Gymnastics Federation. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating the 1990 television deal with CBS-TV and ESPN. Einhorn is also the senior American League representative on the Player Development Negotiating Committee.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership formed to purchase the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for the "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980. Prior to that, Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on television.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, New Jersey and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer (1/2/72) and Jeffrey (9/26/74).

HOWARD PIZER

Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. As a nine-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf, he joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the transition of the team from former owner Bill Veeck's group to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create the new Comiskey Park. He is currently utilizing this experience to assist the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks in the development of the United Center, set to open later this year.

Pizer also set organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and has been instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He is also responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the boards of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and Special Children's Charities, the fund-raising arm of Chicago Special Olympics. He is a member of the board of the Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer was also instrumental in instituting the White Sox's newest venture, Chicago White Sox Charities, where he serves as first vice president and secretary.

Pizer was born on October 23, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline (4/5/68) and Rachel (4/28/71).

RON SCHUELER

Senior Vice President Major League Operations

Ron Schueler begins his fourth season as senior vice president of major league operations after leading the Chicago White Sox to their first American League West title in a decade in 1993. In Schueler's three seasons, the White Sox have posted a .549 winning percentage (267-219) and have averaged 89 victories a season. Schueler brings 14 years of off-field baseball experience and an additional 13 years of playing service to the White Sox. In the four years prior to joining the Sox, Schueler served as special assistant to Sandy Alderson, the Oakland Athletics' vice president of baseball operations, where he was responsible for evaluating both professional and amateur baseball talent.

In his first year with the White Sox, Schueler was responsible for bringing veterans Tim Lincecum and Charlie Hough on board to lend their experience to baseball's youngest team. In a brand-new ballpark, the Sox drew nearly 3 million fans in 1991 as the team recorded its second consecutive runner-up finish in the American League West with an 87-75 record.

In his second year with the White Sox, Schueler hired manager Gene Lamont on November 26, 1991. The Sox finished third in the American League West in Lamont's first season and were 10 games over .500 at 86-76. In 1993, the Sox pitching staff led the American League in ERA, helping the club to a 94-68 record and the division title.

Schueler was selected by Atlanta in the third round, secondary phase, of the January 1967 free agent draft. After five seasons in the minor leagues, the 6-4 right-hander compiled a 40-48 record in eight major-league seasons with Atlanta (1972-73), Philadelphia (1974-76), Minnesota (1977) and the White Sox (1978-79).

He ended his playing career with the White Sox in June of 1979 and was hired as pitching coach (1979-81) by Sox manager Don Kessinger to replace Fred Martin. Schueler joined the Oakland staff and served as pitching coach from 1982-84. He held the same duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986 prior to joining the A's front office.

Schueler was born on April 18, 1948 in Hays, Kansas. A graduate of Hays High School, he attended Fort Hays State College prior to being drafted. Schueler has two children: Kacey (7/21/73) and Carey (4/25/75).

ROB GALLAS

Senior Vice President Marketing & Broadcasting

Rob Gallas joined the White Sox in September of 1989 at a pivotal point in the club's 80-year history. He was given the dual challenge of closing old Comiskey Park with the dignity and respect it deserved, while generating excitement for the club's new home across the street.

Gallas has drawn on his customer-oriented background and genuine love of baseball in developing marketing and promotional programs for the White Sox. From the nostalgic "Turn Back the Clock" promotion and historic montage display of the 80-year Comiskey Park history during the final 1990 season, to creating a Hall of Fame and offering tributes to women in baseball and the members of the former Negro Leagues, marketing has focused on reminding old and new fans of the treasures of baseball.

The new White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, were widely accepted by fans and have moved the Sox to the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales in each of the last three years. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to keep players in touch with fans through events like SoxFest, White Sox Day at Taste of Chicago and the winter caravan tour, while "giving back" to the Chicago metropolitan area through Chicago White Sox Charities and the Sox community relations efforts.

Since Gallas joined the White Sox, the club has broken all-time attendance records and marketing remains oriented to expanding the Sox fan base, with a particular emphasis on families. The Sox topped 2 million in attendance for the fourth consecutive season in 1993 and just the sixth time in the franchise's 93-year history. In recognition of the marketing department's effort, Gallas was one of only three sports executives selected by Advertising Age magazine for its 1992 "Marketing 100" list, which honored programs that "stand for the very best in brand building."

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with various newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. In 1981, he became the first non-Chicago writer to become chairman of the Chicago Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation, where he emphasized customer service and outreach.

Gallas was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 4, 1951 and grew up in Michigan City, Indiana. A 1973 graduate of the University of Evansville (Indiana), Gallas and his wife, Sharon, have two children: Christopher (3/8/71), who is director of media relations for the Hickory Crawdads, and Jennifer (2/4/74), a student at Indiana University. The Gallas family resides in Palatine, Illinois.

JACK GOULD

Senior Vice President Baseball

Jack Gould joined the White Sox as an investor in 1975 during Bill Veeck's second tenure with the club. He assumed his current role as senior vice president of baseball in 1981 with the Reinsdorf-Einhorn ownership group. Gould is also a member of the boards of directors of the White Sox and Chicago Bulls.

Under Gould's direction, the White Sox began computerizing the gathering of statistical data during the 1981 season, bringing the club into the forefront of the industry by making baseball decisions based on computer-generated data. He also oversees the research involved in preparing for potential arbitration cases.

As a bomber pilot for the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, Gould flew on 35 combat missions in Europe and received several decorations, including the distinguished Flying Cross. Lieutenant colonel and actor Jimmy Stewart was second in command of Gould's wing. After leaving the military, Gould ran his own mortgage banking firm for 25 years. He is an advocate of youth baseball and served in various administrative capacities for Colt League Baseball in the northern suburbs of Chicago, including coaching duties.

Gould was born in Chicago, Illinois and is a graduate of Chicago's Von Steuben High School and the University of Illinois, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting. He and his wife, Nancy, have a son Larry (7/24/57).

TIM BUZARD

Vice President Finance

As vice president of finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources and data processing departments. After assuming this position in 1985, he initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the last year working as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing. He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign and a new human resources department with the White Sox, including the implementation of a flexible benefits and 401(k) program.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of finance, Buzard served as controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project.

Buzard holds an accounting degree from the University of Illinois and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Illinois. A 1978 graduate of the University of Illinois, Buzard and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline (11/11/84) and Kevin (3/21/89). The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Illinois.

TERRY SAVARISE

Vice President Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise was directly responsible for the planning and construction of new Comiskey Park. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, press box, The Stadium Club and clubhouses. He is also responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees that staff Comiskey Park on game days.

Savarise is entering his 13th season with the White Sox and is currently serving as project manager for the design and construction of the United Center, a multi-purpose arena that will serve as the new home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks beginning with the 1994-95 season. He will be responsible for the operation of the arena upon its completion. Savarise also worked closely with the city of Sarasota, Florida in the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex, which opened as the club's spring training and minor league headquarters in February of 1989. In addition, he provided assistance in the development of the new L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox's Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their all-star game season of 1980-81. He is an active member of the Stadium Managers' Association, Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers.

Savarise was born on November 20, 1959 and was raised in Ashtabula, Ohio. He is a 1981 graduate of Ohio University with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business law, followed by a master's degree in sports administration later that same year. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie (9/10/88) and Jonathan (7/8/93).

LARRY MONROE

Vice President Scouting and Minor League Operations

A former right-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, Larry Monroe was the special assistant to the general manager and a major-league scout before being appointed to his current position on November 5, 1990. Monroe brings 20 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach to his current post.

Monroe oversees the annual draft selections for the White Sox as well as the player development department. In addition, Monroe handles the winter baseball program that assigns White Sox minor league players to teams in Arizona, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, Mexico and the Dominican Republic during the off-season.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Illinois, Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox's No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan. He has three children: Taylor (10/14/83), Allison (3/13/85) and Grant (9/29/88).

season with a 3.97 ERA ... record was at 5-10 before a strained right hip muscle ended his season on 8/31 ... lost a 9-0 verdict to Baltimore at Comiskey Park on 4/29, as the Orioles snapped a major league record 21-game season-opening losing streak ... first big-league complete game came in a 6-2 loss at Cleveland on 5/17 ... four times he held opponents to one run or less for 8.0 IP or more and was not part of the decision ... blanked Milwaukee on just six hits for 9.0 IP in Sox 1-0, 10-inning win on 6/10 at Chicago ... shut out Seattle on only six hits for 8.0 IP in Sox 1-0, 11-inning success on 7/26 at Comiskey Park. 1987: Posted 3-0 record and 1.93 ERA in four September starts with the White Sox ... made major-league debut on 9/15 vs. the eventual World Series Champion Minnesota Twins ... blanked the Twins on four hits through 7.0 IP and earned a 6-2 victory ... followed that effort with another strong outing in a 5-3 win vs. Seattle on 9/20 ... third outing was even more impressive but he did not get a decision in a 2-1, 10-inning win at Oakland on 9/25 ... hurled 7.0 shutout IP and allowed the Athletics just a pair of harmless singles ... struck out seven and walked three.

Minor League Highlights: 1989: Opened the season with Class AAA Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League ... went to Rookie Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League on 6/8 for rehabilitation of hip problem ... had 2-0 record with 0.75 ERA in four games before returning to the Canadians on 7/13 ... owned 5-6 mark over 16 starts at Vancouver. 1987: Broke into professional baseball in August at Rookie Sarasota after coming to contract terms with the White Sox ... was 0-1 in two games (one start) in his brief stay at Sarasota ... promoted to Class AA Birmingham on 8/13 where he played a role in the Barons' Southern League title run ... was starting and winning pitcher in Birmingham's first-round playoff game against Huntsville, a 15-2 decision.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Married Meredith Peters ... received the 1993 Alumni Award from USA Baseball ... was signed by Duane Shaffer and Ed Pebley ... serves as Sox spokesman for MLB/NEA "Give School a Major League Effort" program ... received national acclaim after leading Stanford University to the 1987 College World Series title ... earned the victory in the championship game against Oklahoma State on 6/7 ... in his third year at Stanford owned a 13-5 record ... three-year Stanford career record, including two trips to the CWS, was 35-13 with a 3.58 ERA ... struck out 337 batters in 392.2 IP for a ratio of 7.7 strikeouts per 9.0 IP pitched ... two-time Pacific-10 All-Conference selection ... holds Stanford's career strikeout record of 337, breaking four-year mark of 315 set by Baltimore's Jeff Ballard ... a native of Van Nuys, Calif., McDowell graduated from Notre Dame High in his hometown ... moonlights as progressive rock recording artist ... together with former Sox left-hander Wayne Edwards and former minor-league pitcher Lee Plemel, formed the musical group V.I.E.W. ... released first album Extendagenda during the 1990 season and followed with the EP Replace the Mind in 1992 ... toured the United States with V.I.E.W. in winter of 1991 as opening act for The Smithereens.

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 15, 1986 at Seattle. With Neil Allen pitching, Alvin Davis walked. Jim Presley's ground ball to Greg Walker was fumbled for an error as Davis went to third. Designated hitter Ken Phelps hit a fly ball to right fielder Jerry Hairston. Hairston fired to catcher Carlton Fisk, who tagged Davis out at the plate. Fisk threw to second baseman Julio Cruz at second, nailing Presley who was trying to advance on the play.

Batting .300 With 25 Home Runs

Frank Thomas became just the second player in White Sox history to bat over .300 with 25 or more home runs more than once in his career. Thomas accomplished the feat in 1991 (.318, 32) and again in 1993 (.317, 41). Dick Allen also achieved those levels twice (1972 and 1974). Harold Baines (1984) and Zeke Bonura (1934) each accomplished it once in their careers.

HISTORY

Second baseman Nellie Fox played 14 seasons with the White Sox and was named American League Most Valuable Player in 1959.

SIGNIFICANT DATES

- November 20, 1893* At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drafe. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
- October 11, 1899* The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.
- March 21, 1900* An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
- April 2, 1900* Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
- April 21, 1900* The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
- April 22, 1900* The next day they defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer.
- September 12, 1900* The White Sox clinch the 1900 pennant by defeating the Cleveland Blues, 12-4, in Chicago.
- January 28, 1901* Meeting in closed door sessions in Chicago, the American League drafts a 140-game schedule and declares itself to be a second Major League.
- April 24, 1901* The first "official" American League game is played in Chicago with Roy Patterson defeating Cleveland, 8-2.
- September 21, 1901* ... Even though they lose in Philadelphia, the White Sox capture their second consecutive American League pennant. For the season they draw 354,350 fans to the tiny South Side grounds, nearly 150,000 more than their crosstown rivals. Chicago plays a team of AL All-Stars led by Nap Lajoie in the postseason "All-American Series." The Sox split the games.
- September 20, 1902* Nixey Callahan fires the first Sox no-hitter against the Detroit Tigers.
- June 9, 1903* The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
- May 12, 1904* Ed Walsh makes his major-league debut in Philadelphia.
- June 5, 1904* Fielder Jones replaces Nixey Callahan as manager.
- October 2, 1904* Doc White's streak of 45 consecutive scoreless innings is snapped by the New York Highlanders in Chicago.
- August 23, 1906* The White Sox win their 19th successive game, downing the Washington Senators, 4-1, behind pitcher Roy Patterson.
- October 14, 1906* The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the finale to win four of the six meetings.
- October 5, 1908* Ed Walsh wins his 40th game of the season, downing Detroit, 6-1. His win total remains a Chicago single-season record.

January 19, 1909	Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later that year, architect Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned to design a spacious ballpark for the White Sox on the site.
October 6, 1909	Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.
March 17, 1910	The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
June 27, 1910	The Sox play for the last time at the 39th St. Grounds, losing to Cleveland, 7-2.
July 1, 1910	Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.
August 11, 1912	Hall-of-Fame catcher Ray Schalk makes his debut, collecting one single in three at-bats against Philadelphia.
November 13, 1913	The White Sox and New York Giants begin a celebrated worldwide tour which is highlighted by a special exhibition game before King George of England.
June 1, 1914	Red Faber begins his 20-year career with the White Sox by losing, 2-1, in a 13-inning decision to the Tigers.
August 20, 1915	The contract of "Shoeless" Joe Jackson is purchased from Cleveland for $31,500.
September 21, 1917	The Sox win the pennant when Red Faber defeats the Red Sox, 2-1, in Boston.
September 29, 1917	The White Sox defeat the New York Yankees to win their 100th game of the season, a feat unmatched in club history.
October 15, 1917	Chicago wins its second World Series title by defeating the New York Giants, 4-2.

White Sox Parks

New Comiskey Park: The new Comiskey Park opened on April 18, 1991, almost three years after the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation to build the park directly across the street from old Comiskey Park. A ground-breaking ceremony was held on May 7, 1989, with Mayor Richard M. Daley and Governor James Thompson in attendance. The new park features an exploding scoreboard, an old-time facade complete with arches and over 40,000 unobstructed-view seats. The new Comiskey Park attracted a club record 2,934,154 fans in its first year and drew rave reviews from the general public and baseball officials.

Old Comiskey Park: After nine years in the South Side Grounds, Charles Comiskey started construction on his new "Baseball Palace of the World" at the corner of 35th Street and Shields Avenue. White Sox Park opened on July 1, 1910, but soon became known as Comiskey Park. The new park was designed by architect Zachary Taylor Davis with help from Comiskey and pitcher Ed Walsh. Comiskey Park featured spacious dimensions (362 feet down each line and 420 feet to straight-away center field.). Before the 1927 season, the park was enclosed by a double-decked outfield grandstand. On August 14, 1939, the first night game in Chicago was played at Comiskey Park, with the Sox defeating the St. Louis Browns, 5-2. The first large center field scoreboard was built in 1950 and lasted until replaced by Bill Veeck's exploding version in 1960. In 1982, a new scoreboard, complete with color video board, was constructed along with new Golden Box seats, dugouts and a level of luxury sky suites. The White Sox played their final campaign at old Comiskey Park in 1990. The festive final weekend of the old stadium was capped by a 2-1 Sox victory over the Seattle Mariners in the final game on September 30, 1990.

39th Street Grounds: The first home of the Chicago White Sox was located at 39th Street and Princeton, four blocks south of the present Comiskey Park. The 39th Street Grounds served as the playing field of the Chicago Wanderers cricket team during the 1893 World's Fair. Charles Comiskey built a wooden grandstand on the site in 1900. The capacity of the tiny grandstand never exceeded 7500. It served as the home of the White Sox until June 27, 1910 when the club vacated the park for Comiskey Park at 35th Street and Shields. The grounds were leased to John Schorling, a South Side saloon keeper who owned the American Giants Negro League team. The park served as the home of Chicago's Negro League teams until the park was demolished in the late 1940s to make way for a public housing project.

RECORDS

As a unanimous selection in 1993, Frank Thomas became the third White Sox player in history to be named the American League's Most Valuable Player.

Thomas and Ventura In Exclusive Club

In 1991, Frank Thomas (32 home runs and 109 RBI) and Robin Ventura (23, 100) became just the eighth pair of teammates under 25 years of age to collect at least 20 home runs and drive in at least 100 runs. The feat has only been accomplished three times since 1955, by Thomas and Ventura, in 1987 by Oakland's Jose Canseco (31, 113) and Mark McGwire (49, 118) and in 1975 by Boston's Fred Lynn (21, 105) and Jim Rice (22, 102)

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox's 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnabout in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

OPENING DAY RECORDS

Overall Record: 48-46

Note: The White Sox remain the last major-league team to open a season with a scheduled doubleheader, scoring 6-5 and 12-4 victories at Oakland on April 7, 1971. The A's had started their season two days earlier at Washington. The Sox won two other Opening Day doubleheaders (1971 on the road and 1982 at home). Both resulted from inclement weather.

CHICO CARRASQUEL

The former White Sox shortstop begins his fifth season as Sox color commentator and third on Spanish-language WIND-AM, teaming with Hector A. Molina ... spent 10 seasons as a radio and TV broadcaster in the Venezuelan Winter League prior to joining the Sox broadcast team in 1990 ... the Caracas native wore a Sox uniform for six of his 10 major-league seasons, compiling a .258 lifetime average and playing in 1325 games with Chicago (1950-55), Cleveland (1956-58), Kansas City (1958) and Baltimore (1959) ... three-time all-star starter (1951, '53, '54), he also went to the All-Star Game in '55 ... was followed in the Sox infield by Hall of Famer and fellow Venezuelan Luis Aparicio ... in 1960, became a coach and later manager for the Caracas Lions while scouting in Venezuela for the Royals and Mets ... still keeps a winter home in Caracas while he and his wife, Connie, spend their summers in Chicago ... his Venezuelan residence includes a trophy room he opens to the public, in which he addresses youth groups and advises them to "say no to drugs."

MEDIA SERVICES

Admission: Enter Comiskey Park at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card, or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Gate 4 and the clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Hispanic Radio), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The White Sox clubhouse will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge will be closed to the media at all times.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entrance at Gate 4. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room), or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots D-E or Lot G, as designated on the parking pass.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are also available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), ChicagoLand Television and SportsChannel will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to the photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pre-game interviews must be done on the field. No game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Roving through the stands and concourses is prohibited. Likewise, field level access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes.
